A DESPERADO'S DEED.

An Attempt Made to Rob a San Francisco Bank.

THE CASHIER SHOT AND KILLED

The Murderer Then Escapes, but Is Afterward Captured and Locked Up—He Is Recognized as a Desperate Criminal Wanted For a Number of Crimes—He Was Prepared to Do Desperate Work.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—A man went into the branch office of the San Francisco Savings Union, which is situated at the corner of Market and Polk streets, about 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning. He presented a written demand for money to Cashier William A. Herrick. The demand was refused, whereupon the desperado murdered the cashier and fled, but was captured a few blocks away. The note presented to the murdered cashier read as follows:

Mr. Cashier: Sir—After considering my deplorable condition, I am convinced that this life is not worth living without desperate means and, therefore, I am resolved to make one more effort to seek help to sustain my miserable existence. Should you not comply with my demand, I am compelled to employ my last remedy—a bottle of nitroglycerin, and to bury myself under the ruins of the building, blasted to everlasting nothingness. Yours respectfully,

A DESPERATE MAN

This note was penned with red ink and at the bottom was roughly sketched a skull and crossbones. After glancing at the document, Herrick returned it to the man with a shake of the head. The man quickly drew a revolver and fired, but his aim was bad. Herrick seized his pistol which lay beside his desk. The cashier and desperado fired at each other almost simultaneously. The former missed, but the latter's second shot found its mark. The bullet passed into Herrick's heart.

As the murderer turned to flee Bookkeeper C. S. Melvin drew a pistol and sent a number of bullets after him, two of which were afterwards discovered to have taken effect. The assassin was pursued from the scene by a large crowd of people, among whom was a quantity of police officers. The fugitive jumped into a wagon and drove several blocks. Finally, he turned into a blind alley and was forced to abandon the wagon. He jumped over a fence into a yard and crawled under a vacant house. There the officers located him, and, though the murderer had a pistol in his possession, he surrendered.

Upon the prisoner was found two 45-calibre pistols, a belt full of cartridges, a dirk knife, a razor and a fuse, such as is used to ignite dynamite. Upon being taken to the city prison he gave his name as Fred Bennett and said he came here from Denver last week. He had been seriously wounded by Melvin's bullets, one striking his temple near the eye, the other lodging in his left shoulder.

It was not long before the police recognized in their prisoner a desperate criminal for whom the authorities throughout the state had been searching for some time. He proves to be none other than the notorious Fredericks, an ex-convict, who was a long time a confederate of the band of Chris Evans. He killed Sheriff Pascoe. He subsequently killed a Southern Pacific brakeman named Benjamin Bruce, and is the man who supplied the arms to George Sontag and his companions at the time they made their futile attempt to escape from prison. Fredericks' last victim, Cashier Herrick, was 35 years of age, and resided in Oakland.

INDIAN UPRISING THREATENED.

Some Probability of an Outbreak Among the Chippewas.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 24.—Reports from Mille Lacs reservation indicate that there is some probability of an outbreak among the 900 Chippewa Indians there. During the Indian war of 1892, these Chippewas proved themselves friends of the settlers, and as a reward for this, when congress passed the so-called act of 1889, they were allowed occupancy of land they had held up to that time, the only condition being continued good behavior.

About two years later, however, their lands were thrown open to settlement, and since that time they have been waiting for the government to do them justice by again giving them possession. The cause of the rumored trouble is the attempt by the Indians to collect sugar from old sugar bushes formerly theirs, but now on lands held by settlers.

To Menace the Whisky Trust.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 24.—George L. Woolsey, projector of the new anti-trust distillery, has been called east suddenly to confer with the directors of the American Distributing company. Recent dispatches from New York indicate that the differences between the whisky trust and the distributing company have been patched up and it is now asserted that the distributing company was back of Woolsey in constructing the new distillery with a view to forcing the trust to terms. It seems probable that the distillery will be carried to completion and then sealed up to hold as a constant menace over the trust.

Cigarmakers Are on a Strike.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 24.—A special cablegram to The Times-Union from Key West says that the cigarmakers are again on a strike. They made their demands on Seidenberg, and when he refused to grant them, the strikers became violent. They attempted to mob Seidenberg and smashed all the windows of the factory. The police were called out, and after a sharp conflict, the mob was scattered. Several were injured, but not fatally.

DIED ON THE SCAFFOLD.

Higgins, the Chicago Murderer, Hanged. History of His Crime.

CHICAGO, March 24.—Thomas Higgins, the youthful murderer of Peter McCooey, expiated his crime on the gallows in the Cook county jail yesterday afternoon. The drop fell at 12:07 1-2. About 250 spectators were present. When the noose was placed around Higgins' neck he said "Good-by," and had begun to repeat the first line of the Lord's prayer when the drop fell.

The noise of the falling trap reached the prisoners on the other side of the jail and scores of them shouted two and three times in succession, "Hang Prendergast!" The murderer was pronounced dead in five minutes, and after the usual inquest the body was given over to the relatives. Brief funeral services were held in the chapel attached to the cathedral and the internment took place later in the evening.

A mob, nearly 1,000 strong, composed in the main of residents of the "tough" district in which Higgins resided, gathered about the jail, and hooted and yelled for an hour previous to the execution. A cordon of police made a charge at noon, and drove the crowd back for a block. Hoots, yells and groans for Prendergast were given at frequent intervals, and some of the mob became so obstreperous that the police were compelled to use their clubs.

The crime for which Thomas Higgins was hanged was the murder of Peter McCooey early one Sunday morning last September. McCooey lived with his wife in the rear of No. 153 Johnson street. He had accumulated some small savings and it is supposed that Higgins and his companions became aware of the fact and entered the house for the purpose of securing the money.

Their movements awakened McCooey, who sprang out of bed and confronted them. One of them fired a shot, which struck McCooey in the forehead, killing him instantly. In searching the neighborhood a short time afterward Lieutenant Mahoney and Officers Kilgallon and Root found Higgins crouching beneath the sidewalk at Brown and Henry streets, with a revolver in his hand. He was arrested and while locked up in the Maxwell street police station, confessed that he had fired the shot which killed McCooey.

NO QUORUM.

Democrats in Congress Unable to Settle a Contested Election Case.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The house was in session yesterday notwithstanding the fact that it was Good Friday. The industry of the lower branch of congress profited it little, however. The Democrats were again without a quorum and the attempt to consider the O'Neill-Joy contested election case, was abandoned until next week.

The unanimous report of the elections committee in the Wheatley-Gobb case confirming the title of the sitting member to his seat was adopted, and the military academy appropriation bill was passed practically without debate. The military academy bill carries $400,438, a reduction of $32,000, compared with the amount appropriated for the current fiscal year.

WILL IT BE VETOED?

President Cleveland Not Expected to Sign the Bland Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—President Cleveland will veto the Bland silver bill. This is a positive statement from the treasury department. The veto measure will not be sent to the senate before next week.

Great pressure was brought to bear upon the president by the capitalists who subscribed for $50,000,000 bonds. They reminded President Cleveland that Secretary Carlisle had assured them that there would be no seigniorage bill to fluctuate stocks. Carlisle admitted the truth of this. The capitalists then stated that no more bonds could be sold if the seigniorage bill was allowed to become a law. Therefore the veto will be sent in.

MINERS' CONFERENCE.

One Thousand Men Will Probably Accept a Reduction in Wages.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 24.—Miners at Rosedale, Coxville and Fontanet, all nearby towns, at their own request, held a conference with the operators, and will probably accept the reduction recently made, voluntarily, by the Clinton miners.

Machines only are used at Rosedale and Coxville, the scale being 52 1-2 cents per ton, as compared with 70 cents for hand mining. The proposed cut will reduce the scale to 43 3-4 cents, and there will be a corresponding reduction of 16 2-3 per cent in all branches of work. About 1,000 miners will be affected.

Government Bills Counterfeited.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The secret service of the treasury department has discovered that there are two new counterfeit government bills in circulation. One is of the two-dollar treasury note and the other is of the one-dollar silver certificate. This is the first counterfeit ever found of the two-dollar treasury note. It is of the series 1891, check letter "C." W. S. Rosecrans, register; E. H. Nebeker, treasurer; portrait of McPherson. The one-dollar silver certificate counterfeit is series 1891, check letter "A."

LULING, Tex., March 24.—A wreck occurred on the Lockhart branch of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad, near Dale, yesterday. The whole train, with the exception of the engine, left the track and rolled down an embankment. The injured are: Mrs. E. A. Cowan, Boston, internally injured; W. D. Liflin, Kansas City, back hurt; Tom Rogers, Gainesville, scalp wound; James Benford, inspector of the Wagner Car company, New York, head cut; U. B. Carter, Henryville, Md., leg cut.

FIVE PEOPLE KILLED.

Two Women and Three Men Were the Victims.

DYNAMITE WORKS BLOWN UP.

The Unfortunate Affair Occurred Near Pittsburg—The Bodies of the Victims Horribly Mutilated—Houses a Mile From the Scene Badly Damaged—The Works Completely Wiped Out.

PITTSBURG, March 24.—The dynamite works of the Acme Powder company, at Black's Run, 14 miles above Pittsburg, on the Allegheny Valley railroad, blew up yesterday, killing three men and two women and badly wrecking houses and other buildings in Acmetonia, directly across the river, at Hulton, two miles south, and at Johnston station, a short distance east.

The women killed were: Mrs. William Arthurs, employed in making shells; Miss Sadie Remley, a niece of Mrs. Arthurs, also employed as a shellmaker. Eight men were employed in the works, but only three had gone to work. These were instantly killed. Their names were: William Arthur, Samuel Remaley and Nellie Remaley.

At the time of the explosion there was stored in the works five tons of dynamite, a consignment ready for shipment. The works had a capacity of 20,000 pounds per day.

The bodies of the victims were terribly mutilated. The explosion created the wildest kind of excitement in the Allegheny valley above and below Black's run, at the mouth of which the works were located.

At Acmetonia, Oakmont, Hulton, Verona, Johnston, Parnassus, Kensington, Tarentum and other towns within a radius of several miles, there was great excitement. Nearly every window in Acmetonia, Springdale and Hulton was shattered, while a few of the houses were considerably damaged. The works of the Acme Powder company were wiped completely out of existence. The clerks in the company's offices in Pittsburg could give no estimate of the loss to the company.

Superintendent James Mooney was the only person to survive his injuries. Mr. Mooney's legs were shattered, and will probably have to be amputated.

There were, it seems, two explosions. The first occurred in the packinghouse in which those who were killed were at work. This building was scattered to the winds. An instant later there was a terrific explosion in the mixinghouse, which raised the building and machinery from the ground. The surrounding forest has the appearance of having been mown down by a gigantic scythe.

BREWERIES BOYCOTTED.

Knights of Labor at War With English Capital.

PHILADELPHIA, March 24.—Twenty-three breweries in St. Louis controlled by English capital are, it is reported, to be the object of a boycott by Knights of Labor, and the boast is made that before many months every one of those concerns will be idle.

An official of the Knights of Labor said that this was likely to prove one of the most important fights that the organization has had on its hands since its conflict with the New York Central road. "Either," he said, "they will unionize the St. Louis breweries or they would bankrupt the English stockholders. A schedule is now being prepared of every saloon, and so far as is practicable, of every private consumer using the product of the breweries under the ban. Each and every one of these will be approached in turn and asked to discontinue the use of the obnoxious product. If they refuse they will also come under the boycott."

Law to Take Its Course.

WHARTON, Tex., March 24.—The anti-lynching league's telegram to Governor Hogg, dated from Chicago, has stirred up great indignation in this and Matagorda counties. The sentiment is that Chicago cranks have enough to attend to with their anarchists, and expressions are bitter. The 17 negroes who murdered Boudin are in jail in Matagorda, and the citizens have determined to let the law take its course. When the assassination occurred, Constable Heart of this county organized a posse to capture the murderers, but a negro constable in Matagorda had already captured the party and jailed them. It appears that Boudin had whipped a couple of negroes who would not work, and this was the cause of the uprising. All is now peaceable.

An Old Fashioned Duel.

RIO GRANDE CITY, Tex., March 24.—Yesterday at Rolla, 15 miles above here on the Rio Grande, an old fashioned duel was fought by two youths of 15. One of the combatants, Teodora Saena, was stabbed seven times in the left side and neck and lies at the point of death. His antagonist, Lulio Garcia, was slightly cut on the wrist. The cause is a Mexican senorita. All the parties, including the seconds, who were duly selected in accordance with the rules of the code, after attending divine service in the Catholic church, adjourned to a convenient spot and had it out with daggers. The wounded boy will not speak about the cause of the fight, saying that he would die without peaching.

The Storm Abated.

OMAHA, March 24.—The great storm that has been prevailing over the northwest has entirely abated, and the sun is shining brightly, with no wind.

Statkors Scheme.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., March 24.—The striking potters here talk of starting up a plant of their own.

CALAMITOUS.

France Beginning to Get Silk Making That Belongs Here.

NEW YORK, March 24.—The silk weavers are confident that the manufacturers will concede all their demands, and their leaders encourage them in this belief. A manufacturer says that upwards of 7,000 silk workers are out in Paterson, and probably 2,000 in this city. It is believed that the strike has weakened a number of the small manufacturers. The small mill owners believe that the combination of the large manufacturers against the weavers was designed to crowd them out. They claim that should the strike continue much longer, the chances for a good fall trade will be ruined. The spring trade they say has gone to France, where, according to reports, the silk manufacturers of Lyons are experiencing unusual activity. There are indications that some reductions are being made in the trade union schedule in this city, due to the fact that some of the manufacturers have employed a number of green hands and will teach them the trade. This is causing some alarm among the trade.

HONDURAS' TROUBLE.

Two or Three Revolutions Reported to Be on Hand.

DALLAS, March 24.—General W. L. Caboll has just returned from Honduras. He reports two or three revolutions on hand and a general election for president. Dr. Ariez is the leading candidate and will undoubtedly be elected. He is a close friend of Bonilla and has their active support.

General Caboll considers Bogram the ablest man in the republic, and one likely to shape largely the public affairs of that country in the near future. The ex-president, Naguez, is safe in San Salvador where he has a companion, Major J. E. Burke, late defaulting state treasurer of Louisiana.

BLIND IN AN INSTANT.

An Awful Misfortune Befalls a Brooklyn Reporter.

NEW YORK, March 24.—James Canfield, a reporter of The Brooklyn Citizen, lost both of his eyes under peculiar circumstances. He was standing within six or eight feet of the trolley tracks on the corner of Fulton and Adams streets, when he experienced a sudden shock and the next instant discovered that he was blind. A friend led him to the sidewalk and a short time after he was sent to the hospital, where an examination was made. The physicians there, it is said, thought Canfield's eyesight had been permanently destroyed, but whether the cause was an electric shock or not was not definitely learned.

Wyoming Oil.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., March 24.—The development of the oil fields of central Wyoming has been greatly impeded by the inability to secure reasonable freight rates for transporting oil to the markets. This difficulty is about to be overcome. A company composed mostly of St. Louis capitalists to lay a pipeline to run oil from the Salt creek wells through Orin Junction to Fort Laramie. From this point it is proposed to ship the oil in barges down the Platte and Missouri rivers to St. Louis where it will be refined and put on the market. It is believed that the Pennsylvania Oil company is behind the project.

Ocean Vessel Damaged.

NEW YORK, March 24.—The German tramp steamship Bremerhaven, which left Rotterdam March 6, arrived here yesterday. She was somewhat damaged from having come in contact with ice fields and stormy weather. On March 10 she lost one of the blades of her propeller. Seven days later she ran into a field of ice, an hour later she narrowly escaped an iceberg; it was 800 feet high. When the fog lifted the ice extended 20 miles in every direction. The bow plates were damaged.

Temperance Ticket of Women.

ABILENE, Kan., March 24.—At a mass meeting the women of Enterprise, a town of 1,000 people, in this county, have put up a complete temperance ticket composed of women. Mrs. M. Kohler, wife of ex-Senator Kohler, was nominated for mayor. Mrs. Kate Haines for police judge, and a full quota of council members were named. All are married and they propose to purify the city's politics.

Fire Hose Destroyed.

DENVER, March 24.—Over 1,000 feet of hose was destroyed at Thursday night's fire by cutting. It is not known by whom or for what purpose it was done. Chief Pearce, who spent the best part of his life in building up the fire department, says he will resign if politics are permitted to continue to hamper the department as has been the case for two years.

Habeas Corpus Proceedings Dismissed.

CHICAGO, March 24.—John L. Sneed, who was arrested here charged with stealing 20 1,000-mile tickets from the Pennsylvania road at Columbus, O., has consented to return to Columbus voluntarily. The habeas corpus proceedings instituted by him were accordingly dismissed.

Quarreled Over a Woman.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., March 24.—At Golden, a mining camp, north of this city, Jim Cheeves, insanely jealous of his divorced wife, quarreled with Al Perry over the woman. Pistols were drawn and both fired simultaneously. Cheeves was shot dead and Perry can not live.

RICHMOND, Ind., March 24.—A. E. Crocker of this city, president of the San Javier Mining company, of San Javier, Mexico, a venture backed by Richmond capital, was yesterday sued by W. E. Manley to recover $20,000 worth of real estate, alleged to have been secured by Crocker by "fraudulent means." The stockholders will ask for a receiver for the company and Crocker's removal.

REVIEW OF TRADE.

Weekly Report Issued by R. G. Dun & Company.

THE CONDITION OF BUSINESS.

Business Grows Larger in Volume, But Is No More Profitable—Uncertainty Does Not Diminish, But Has Rather Increased. Prices of Commodities Still Low—Encouragement Felt For the Future.

NEW YORK, March 24.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: It is perplexing to be obliged to report that business grows larger in volume and at the same time not more profitable. Uncertainty does not diminish, but has rather increased in the judgment of many commercial bodies, which have urged the president to veto the seigniorage bill. Prices of commodities do not rise, but are on the whole about 1.5 per cent lower than last week though then the lowest ever known in this country, and are 12.9 per cent lower than a year ago.

More mills are at work, though the proportion of production force unemployed is still from a fifth to a third in different branches of industry, and many mills are stopping because their orders have run out, even while a large number are starting with orders enough for a time. The starting of four furnaces by the Illinois Steel company and one other at Pittsburg increases the output of iron and some large sales have been made at the lowest prices yet reported, with indications of continued demand for structural work, especially at the west.

On the other hand the demand for wire in various forms, which led the way to improvement, seems to slacken and nails are said to be selling lower than ever, below 1 cent. A reduction of 60 cents in freights from Pittsburg to tide water only adds to western, while it takes from eastern business. In minor metals business is a little larger, but at the expense of a further decline to 9.5 cents for lake copper while tin is steady and lead a shade higher.

The demand for cotton goods is fairly large, but with reduction in prices of some grades, and the accumulation of print cloth continues. A large auction sale of silks brought fairly satisfactory prices. Sales of wool for three weeks have exceeded last year's 23.9 per cent, their transactions this month last year were about 40 per cent below the average. There is more demand for such wool as is needed in the manufacture of underwear, dress goods and worsted suitings, but fine fleeces are almost unsalable, Ohio XX being quoted at 22 cents, and carpet manufacturers' but sparingly, though about half their machinery is active.

Wheat, cotton and pork have declined a little, wheat making another record a shade below 80 cents at New York. Western receipts are 1,598,359 bushels against 2,545,709 last year, and exports only 1,013,209 bushels against 1,295,894 last year, showing that even at current prices the grain is not largely wanted abroad. Corn was a cent stronger with western receipts 2,874,698 bushels against 1,953,322 last year. Cotton receipts from plantations are again larger than last year, to the disgust of prophets who have foretold of "perpendicular drop" ever since Jan. 1.

The termination of the rebellion in Brazil opens a new crop of coffee, which is reported very large, but prices are as yet steady. Cattle are low abroad almost beyond precedent, so that exports are retarded.

There is encouraging increase, the first for many months, in eastbound tonnage from Chicago, and at Indianapolis the movement is almost as large as last year, while westbound tonnage of high class merchandise is also large.

Failures for the week ending March 15 involve liabilities of only $2,558,818, and for two weeks of March only $4,835,110, of which $2,330,257 were of manufacturing, and $2,445,069 of trading concerns. Some deferred reports will further swell the aggregate, but at San Francisco, the resurrections reported now exceed the failures. A number of railroad receiverships are noticed, though none of importance. The failures this week number 244 in the United States, against 217 last year, and 50 in Canada, against 26 last year. It is noteworthy that Canadian failures are considerably increasing.

VILLAGE DESTROYED.

But Six Houses Left Standing in Money Point, Va.

BALTIMORE, March 24.—A special dispatch to The Herald gives particulars of the almost total destruction of the village of Money Point, just outside of the city of Norfolk, Va. The fire broke out in the sheds of the Roanoke Lumber company and raged fiercely from 1 to 10 o'clock p. m., destroying the entire plant of the company as well as that of the Old Dominion Crocketing works.

The 3-masted schooner Elias Moore, lying at the lumber company's wharf, was destroyed. Only six houses are left standing in the village and the loss will foot up at least $300,000. The total insurance is $200,000.

NEW YORK, March 24.—Baaye Kerkhoff, a passenger on board the steamer Stuttgart, from Bremen, to this port, jumped overboard on March 15 and was drowned. He was booked for Baltimore, and had a railway ticket thence to Reinbeck, Ia.

Cowboy Shot and Killed.

LANDER, Wyo., March 24.—Bill Gallagher, a cowboy, was shot and killed at Meeteetee by John Witham, another cowboy, whom he attempted to shoot for interfering for a woman whom Gallagher was beating. The woman is in a critical condition.

Fair weather; warmer; winds becoming south.

TWO YEARS of McKinleyism in Ohio has "busted" the State treasury, says the Georgetown News-Democrat. And a few years of McKinleyism and Reedism "busted" the National treasury.

"The tariff beneficiaries who are covertly instigating a demonstration of physical force upon Congress should have a care," says the Philadelphia Record, "lest in raising the wind they may create a whirlwind. They cannot overawe or intimidate the Representatives and Senators of the Nation by any such demonstration; but they may conjure up a demon of lawlessness and riot which on occasion might turn and rend its own creators."

SENATOR MORGAN, at the proper time, will push his proposed amendment to the Wilson tariff bill providing for the appointment of a tariff commission. The purpose of the amendment is to provide for changes of the tariff upon an equitable basis without the disturbance in business, which is always the result of an effort to make a complete revision. If the matter should be placed in the hands of a commission, as is proposed by the amendment, changes could be made to suit the condition of the Treasury or of any especial industry, the Senator claims, and they would be so gradual, if made in accordance with the provisions of the amendment, as not to create the least disturbance. We believe the business men of the country without regard to party would indorse such a law.

THE BUSINESS DEPRESSION.

Here's some figures for the calamity howlers to study:

Thomas J. Dowling, Commissioner of the Bureau of Statistics of Labor of New York, in his report submitted to the Legislature makes special reference to the effects of the recent and present "hard times" on manufacturers and their working force. An investigation of the subject was begun during December, when a circular of inquiry was sent to the owners of the different manufacturing establishments in the State. The Commissioner received replies from 2,011 manufacturing concerns in sixty-four general industries to the following questions contained in the letter:

"Did the recent and present 'hard times' cause a suspension in your manufacturing establishment, and, if so, has your workshop been closed entirely or partially?"

Of the number responding 470, or 23 per cent., stated that they had not been affected by the business depression and consequently did not cease operations in their workshops, employing their usual working force on full time.

Fifteen hundred and forty-one manufacturers reported that they were affected by the "hard times," but only 199 declared that their works had been entirely closed. One thousand and eighty-seven establishments were partially closed; others were shut down part of the time and in operation part of the time.

But here follows a very interesting part of the report. In response to the question, "Was there any reduction in wages on account of the business depression, and, if so, what percentage?" only 494 establishments reported that they had reduced wages, while 1,460 replied that they had not, and fifty-seven failed to answer.

Some of them declare that the tariff has little or nothing to do with a business depression that is affecting the civilized countries of the world, and that a chief factor in the trouble is "too many goods in the market," or, in other words, over-production.

Some of the firms which had to stop work are severe in their strictures on the banks, saying that these institutions refused to give them assistance in time of need. One firm reports that a national bank charged 20 per cent. for discounting commercial paper. Other firms say that they could have kept their men at work if the banks had been more liberal in their accommodations.

FATHER OF FINANCE.

Prayer to the Hon. John Sherman.
Knotty Questions Perplex the Masses.

[M. A. F. in Pittsburg Post.]

Into thy presence, O Sherman, thou high, noble and mighty man of Ohio, we humbly come, pleading our entire unworthiness, but relying on thy grace and forgiveness for the intrusion. We know thee of old, thou art exalted above any one of us, publicans and sinners; thou art rich with the good things of this world, and we are glad we are living; thou hast much richness which thou hast scraped together by the sweat of thy jaw, and the brow of others; thou hast been frugal, for on a salary of $5,000 a year thou hast saved up much ducats, and placed them where neither we nor any other mortal can get a smell; great are thy possessions; thy very greatness has induced us to surrender our farms, and our dollars into thy care, oh, noble John! Thy wealth exceeds ours as thy wisdom is above the black man or the Irish. We worship thee for what thou art, and wert, and will be. A day to thee is as several months, for thy salary goes on, and the shekels roll in on thee like showers of blessings. We know that thou art posted on finance; that thou possessest much learning and hast made the most of it in days gone by. We beg of thee to look upon us in compassion as thou didst upon our houses and lands before the Sheriff called for them. Graciously lend us your ear, yea both ears, till we tell you a few things, that may be news to thy august person. We do this for thou art high above us and we are in the soup knee deep, and if it pleaseth thee to help us out all right, but if not our name is Dennis, sure. We are encompassed about by many Populists and they try our wits mightily for knowledge wherewith to knock them out in their arguments, and we come to thee as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, or words to that effect. We are told by these Populists that thou hast two wings, one called Republican and the other called Democrat; and that it is pleasing to thee to use one or both, or either, when thy gracious high and mighty soul chooseth. Tell us, Oh John, tell us, how to fetch this misguided people to time. They are full of wisdom as an egg's of meat and this is the milk in the coconut. Help us to drag them back into the fold as the spider would the fly. Selah!

We talk with them as a father would to his kids, and our words of wisdom fall flat and miss the mark every time, for they are wise as serpents, but they are not harmless by a mill site. When we say, "The silver dollar is a fraud," they answer us and say, "They want more of the frauds," and we half believe them. Great and highly elevated John, can you help us out? We are aware trying it ourselves. We say unto these men that the greenback isn't money, and they, being of few words but mighty quick, reply unto us, and say: "How many have you got?" and we are vexed at such talk. We say unto these sons of Belial that "there is plenty of money in circulation," and they say unto us, "Are you burdened with it?" which perplexeth our souls even unto madness, for we have not seen a dollar for a month, and have no prospect for the morrow. These misguided people are too much for us, and we are disposed to give them up to thee. Father of Finance, take them; take them and straighten them out, for we have a sneaking notion that they are wrong and we are right; or rather that thou art, beg pardon for saying "we." We are unworthy to say so naughty a word. Pray for them, John, pray for them; they are bull-headed, stiff-necked and rebellious. We quote thy rich sayings on finance, and these obdurate people say, "When did he say it?" and we are as though we were not, for we are without wisdom and words. It beats all how these Populists get the better of us. Gracious prince, lord of landlords! come unto us and give us a lift.

Come down from thy seat in the Senate and with thy jaw-bone, slay the entire crew, and it will save the two old parties much lucre in the next election, for we can agree to divide up as it hath pleased thee to recommend in the past. Our hearts are sore, but we are thine; do with us as thou pleasest; we have no money to give thee, nor houses, nor man servants, nor he goats, nor lands; for thee and thy friends, the bankers, have kindly chosen to care for these; but we still have votes, and these—Great, noble John?—are thine now and forever, all of us, Republicans and much Democrats, for ever and ever, unless you tell us nay.

Royal Denmark.

Messrs. John Clarke and P. P. Parker invite the attention of the breeders of this section to their fine standard-bred saddle stallion Royal Denmark, 703. This horse was foaled in 1890, was sired by Sterling Dedmark whose grand-sire was old Washington Denmark. He is pronounced one of the best individual saddle colts in Kentucky. Royal Denmark will make the season at Mr. Clarke's stable near Mayslick. At the same place, the fine Spanish jack Castellan will make the season.

A Quarter Century Test.

For a quarter of a century Dr. King's New Discovery has been tested, and the millions who have received benefit from its use testify to its wonderful curative powers in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs. A remedy that has stood the test so long and that has given so universal satisfaction is no experiment. Each bottle is positively guaranteed to give relief, or the money will be refunded. It is admitted to be the most reliable for coughs and colds. Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Large size 50c. and $1.

MISSSES CLAYTON & YOUNG have opened a dressmaking establishment on Court street, in room adjoining Mrs. J. K. Lloyd's residence.

The Old Friend

And the best friend that never fails you is Simmons Liver Regulator, (the Red Z)—that's what you hear at the mention of this excellent Liver medicine, and people should not be persuaded that anything else will do.

It is the King of Liver Medicines; is better than pills, and takes the place of Quinine and Calomel. It acts directly on the Liver, Kidney and Bowels and gives new life to the whole system. This is the medicine you want. Sold by all Druggists in Liquid, or in Powder to be taken dry or made into a tea.

Pork Packing.

The returns of Western packing for the week indicate a total of 235,000 hogs, compared with 240,000 the preceding week and 145,000 for the corresponding time last year. The total from March 1 is 720,000, against 410,000 a year ago—increased 310,000. The quality of hogs being marketed is generally quite satisfactory. Prices have shifted somewhat during the week, the average for Western markets at the close being about the same as a week ago, approximately $4.45 and $4.50 per hundred pounds, says the Cincinnati Price Current.

Only $1.50 Round Trip.

Don't forget the C. and O. excursion to Cincinnati Wednesday, March 28th. Tickets good going on all regular trains of March 28th, and good returning on special excursion train leaving Cincinnati (Fourth Street Depot) 11:30 p. m. the same day; also on trains 2, 18 and 20 leaving Cincinnati 8 a. m., 2:15 p. m. and 5:15 p. m. Thursday, March 29th. Great attractions at all of the Cincinnati theatres, the greatest of which is James J. Corbett, in "Gentleman Jack" at the Walnut. Don't miss it.

Property For Sale.

I will sell privately the home place of the late John McCarthy, on the south side of the Germantown pike, just outside the city limits. A good frame house and never-failing spring on the place. The lot fronts 100 feet and 8 inches, and extends back the same width 105 feet. Will be sold cheap. Apply to M. J. MCCARTHY, this office.

The Dancing Wonders.

The Ravey Sisters, will positively appear here with the American Vaudeville. These young ladies made a decided hit during the company's long stay at the Empire Theatre, Chicago, and in novelty dancing they are said to be unexcelled.

THE Disciples of Christ will conduct the usual services to-morrow at 10:45 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:15 p. m. Midweek prayer meeting Thursdays at 7:30 p. m. Easter sermon to-morrow morning; subject, "The Resurrection of Jesus, the Christ; Is it Fact or Fiction?" Night subject, "The Bible and Woman; Is She an Annex to Man?" To think in the light of other men's thought is the rich inheritance of every living man. To be compelled to think the thought of others is a species of bondage, the tyranny of which is death to all growth. Our contention is, not vassalage to any interpretation, in either of the realms of life, social, ethical, political, or religious, but the right of interpretation; not to drop anchor in the sayings of any man, but the right to say for ourselves. The imperative of all growth is by thought to assimilate the thought of others. Without assimilation by thought, what we see and hear is but to bewilder and confuse. Our services are to aid everyday living and not to placate an angry God. E. B. CAKE, Minister.

MORE MILLS RESUMING.

One Big Concern Has Orders to Keep Busy Night and Day For Two Years.

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 19.—All the departments of the Pennsylvania Works, at Steelton, started up to-day for the first time in three months. Over 4,000 men went to work.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., March 19.—After a shutdown of several months the Pioneer Knitting Mill and the Lee Manufacturing Company's knitting mill resumed this morning.

MARCELLUS, N. Y., March 19.—The Crown Woolen Mills Company, the largest of its kind in Central New York, resumed operations with a force of 250 men.

The South Chicago Mill of the Illinois Steel Company resumed a few days ago with 4,000 hands. The company announces that it has enough orders on hand to keep the mill running night and day for two years.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. for large bottle. At J. Never Let Up.

Persistence in advertising is the thing that tells in the long run. James T. Pyle, of Pearlboro, N. J., who is supposed to know something about the art of advertising, says: "Get on top in your business. Do it by advertising. There is only one top to each business, like the point of a pyramid, and the man who gets on top finds it easier to keep other people off than before he got there. Never let up on your advertising."

MR. HAYES THOMAS, Principal of the city school in district No. 2, had occasion to punish a couple of pupils—a boy named Cooper and the eldest son of Captain E. W. Fitzgerald—Friday morning, for some misconduct in the school room during school hours—engaging in a boxing match according to the testimony afterwards brought out. A couple of switches were used in chastising the lads. On learning of the affair, Captain Fitzgerald went to the school and proceeded to punish the teacher. Mr. Thomas was knocked down and hit several times on the face and head, receiving a number of severe bruises but no serious injury. Mr. Henry Shea interfered and put an end to the affair. The trouble was investigated in the Police Court in the afternoon, and Captain Fitzgerald was fined $10 and costs.

CONVENTION OF MINERS CALLED.

Prospects of One Hundred Thousand Miners Becoming Idle.

PITTSBURG, March 24.—President John McBride of the United Mine Workers of America has issued a circular calling for the fifth annual convention of the organization, to be held at Columbus commencing April 10. The convention will be the most important one yet held, for at this convention a national movement will be considered. This means the total suspension of work by miners through America, from Colorado to eastern Pennsylvania. If adopted, and a date set, the greatest strike in the history of the miners of America will be inaugurated. There are in America fully 100,000 miners who are attached to the United Mine Workers' organization.

President McBride, in his official call for a convention, sends a program for independent labor politics to be discussed and acted upon at the meeting. The proposed political action is based upon the course pursued by the trades unionists of Great Britain. The program contains compulsory education, a legal eight-hour work day, sanitary inspection, abolition of contract system on public works, municipal ownership of streetcars, and gas and electric light plants, nationalization of telegraphs, telephones, railroads and mines. If endorsed, the United Mine Workers will bring the propositions before the next convention of the American Federation of Labor.

RESISTING A REDUCTION.

An Effort Being Made to Settle the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Trouble.

BRAZIL, Ind., March 24.—The employees of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad met in this city yesterday to discuss the proposed reduction in wages. The workmen are determined not to accede to the reduction, but put off definite action until a committee of the employees meets the officials, which will occur in the near future.

The employees claim the reduction is lower than the scales paid on other roads, and if accepted would create a general reduction. This is thought to be sufficient assurance that they will receive assistance from their brother laborers all over the country. Another significant feature is the employees claim the reduction was made without their knowledge, which, they assert, indicates that the officials are determined to deal singly with the employees.

OUT ON BAIL.

A Man Charged With Double Murder Has the Public's Sympathy.

HAMMOND, Ind., March 24.—Albert Looker, who shot and killed James Conroy and William Cleary in a saloon here Wednesday evening, was arraigned here yesterday. The prosecuting attorney said that the state had made no investigation and asked that Looker be placed under bonds. These were fixed at $500, which amount was quickly furnished by Looker's friends.

The sympathy of the people generally is with Looker. Both the dead men, who had for a long time acted as wardens for the Tolleston Hunting and Fishing club, an organization of wealthy Chicagoans, had been very brutal in their demeanor to the people hereabouts, and had succeeded in gaining the ill-will of many.

Robbery in the Strip.

TULSA, I. T., March 24.—News has just reached here of another robbery in the strip. Wednesday night last four masked men rode into the little town of Lenora, situated in the extreme southeast corner of the Cherokee strip, about 20 miles from here, and entered the saloon of Frank Sinnet, in which were about a dozen men, and, after taking all the money in the house, they secured two pistols and a Winchester lying behind the bar, filled their pockets with whisky and tobacco, and rode off in a northerly direction. The amount secured will not exceed $100. Officers are in pursuit of the robbers.

Death by Drowning.

MURPHYSBORO, Ill., March 24.—The coroner's inquest over the body of Thomas Robertson, found in the Goodman ditch, in Union county, on Wednesday, has been concluded. Drs. Bay-singer and Gardner, who held an autopsy, could find no gunshot wounds, and they testified that Robertson met his death by drowning. This exploded the theory that Robertson was murdered by Sheriff Rich's party, and clearly exonerates them. William Aldrich, Thomas Black and W. S. Grear had already been arrested on the charge of murdering Robertson, and it is probable that the suits will not be pressed, notwithstanding the finding of the coroner's jury.

Poisoned or Tinned Meat.

CLEVELAND, March 24.—Three severe cases of poisoning, following the eating of canned beef, occurred at the boarding-house of Richard Milburn, at 235 St. Clair street. Milburn and two boarders ate freely of corned beef for supper. During the night the three men were taken violently ill. A physician worked over them four hours before relief came. Milburn is in a precarious condition and it is thought he will not recover.

Got Damages.

LOUISVILLE, March 24.—James E. Crouch, a conductor who sued the Newport News and Mississippi Valley and Chesapeake and Ohio and Southwestern railroads for $25,000 damages for injuries sustained in a collision, was given a judgment yesterday in the circuit court for $8,750. The Chesapeake and Ohio and Southwestern is to pay $6,250 and the Newport News and Mississippi Valley $2,500.

Sensational Arrests.

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., March 24.—A sensation was created here yesterday by the arrest of James Swift, one of a leading family of this section, for beating Cord Cooper, a wealthy planter, probably fatally, in an effort to rob him. The victim's skull was crushed with a stone. Charles Woolenham is under arrest as an accomplice. The highwaymen secured no money.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., March 24.—A live snake 14 inches long, was hewn out of a rock by the stonedresser at the new courthouse.

REST FOR MOTHER'S TIRED HANDS.

Ready Made Clothing For Children Is Now Pretty and Inexpensive.

It is a marvel that any mother will spend time in making the garments for her young children, when their entire wardrobe can be obtained ready made—and well made—at so reasonable a cost. The children's clothing shown this season is remarkably pretty, and much of it is inexpensive. Blue or pink and white striped lawn waists, trimmed with ruffles and wide collars, may be bought to go with little boys' fancy suits, besides the usual white embroidered ones, while the suits themselves are shown in black, blue and drab, trimmed with braid, the jacket being made short enough to allow the light waist to appear below it.

LITTLE GIRL'S SUMMER FROCK.

White lawn aprons ruffled around the armholes and with ribbons run through embroidered beading about the low neck and tied in bows on the shoulders are a novelty for small girls, while the display of frocks and coats for very little people is dainty in the extreme. There are fine gingham dresses mounted on a white embroidered yoke, with a berth of white embroidery falling over the sleeves; charming, old fashioned little gowns of white corded nainsook sprinkled with tiny colored flowers and made with full bodice, skirt and sleeves and a wide nainsook sash; white Marseilles coats, with capes, both trimmed with wide embroidery, and etherealized sunbonnets, very perky in the crown and flaring in the brim and prettily embroidered. A beautiful dress for a 4-year-old child is of bright red cashmere. It is gathered into a tucked yoke of the same material and has very full sleeves gathered into a band at the wrist. Full epaulets of cashmere, finely embroidered with white silk on the edge, hang over the shoulders.

The fashion of dressing very little girls in short sleeved and low necked frocks, at least during warm weather, has again come around. It is charming to see the soft little necks and arms uncovered, but gowns made in that style ought always to be provided with a guimpe, to be adjusted at the first hint of dampness or falling temperature. An illustration is given of a frock made of blue and white figured nainsook. It is mounted in box plaits on the pointed yoke, which is made of bands of blue and white insertion and surrounded by a ruffle of embroidery to match. Blue ribbons are fastened at the under arm seams and tied in a bow at the back, and blue bows adorn the shoulders.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Confessed to Murder.

WACO, Tex., March 24.—John Green, alias Richard Lee, colored, was brought to this city yesterday, charged with the murder of Eugene Carter, in this city, 23 years ago. He confesses and says he will locate $15,000 he buried, having stolen it.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died, at Germantown, Ky., after a short illness of pneumonia, Maggie Vernal, youngest child of William and Nellie Gleason, aged two years, four months and one day.

Dearest, Maggie thou art gone,
Now thy gentle spirit's fled,
Thy short journey here is run;
Thou art sleeping with the dead.

Hovering near her little bed,
A heavenly vision, veiled in light,
Ready to conduct the soul
To her home so fair and bright.

Far beyond the silver moonbeams—
Aye, beyond the stars of night—
Dwells our bright and loving Maggie
In the home of angels bright.

Ah! me thinks I hear her whisper:
"Listen to me, mother dear,
I am with the blessed Savior,
All is bright and happy here.

Weep not, dearest father, mother,
Wipe away that falling tear,
Jesus wept with weeping Mary
He feels for thee, thou need'st not fear.

He'll bind the broken hearted,
With the soothing balm of love,
And thou wilt see thy little Maggie
In that happy home above."

Her memory round us clings,
Though we see her form no more;
Yet we know she'll come to meet us
When we reach the mystic shore.

March 10, 1894. E. G. C.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

McKane Must Remain in Prison.
NEW YORK, March 24.—Justice O'Brien of the supreme court has denied the application for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of John Y. McKane. In his remarks Justice O'Brien scored McKane's lawyers for their repeated applications to the same judge.

Failed to Borrow Money.
PROVO, U. T., March 24.—The Provo Lumbering Manufacturing and Building company, one of the oldest firms in the city, has made an assignment. The firm was unable to borrow money to meet pressing demands. The assets exceed the liabilities.

Pension Approved Of.
WASHINGTON, March 24.—The president has approved the bill granting a pension to Hannah Lyons, 91 years of age, daughter of John Russell, the revolutionary soldier whose statue stands on guard at Trenton battle monument.

Life Imprisonment.
FORT WAYNE, March 24.—The jury in the case of Martin Hawley, charged with the murder of his mother, after being out 16 hours, brought in a verdict yesterday of guilty, placing his punishment at life imprisonment.
